

BEFORE YOU COPY

Check these Copying Guidelines

TO COPY OR POST PUBLISHED MATERIAL:

- obtain specific permission or another licence from the copyright owner to copy or post published material; or
- comply with York University's Fair Dealing Guidelines when copying or posting published material

Under the Copyright Act individuals may not make copies of all or substantial parts of published works without the copyright owner's consent.

The Copyright Act allows a FAIR DEALING exception that permits the use of a substantial portion of a published work for the purpose of research, private study, criticism or review or news reporting. Follow these fair dealing points when you copy.

- 1 YOU MAY COPY up to ten (10) per cent of a Published Work, other than a commercial textbook produced primarily for the post secondary education market, or the following, whichever is greater:
- a) an entire chapter from a book provided that it does not exceed twenty (20) per cent of the book;
 - b) an entire article from a periodical publication;
 - c) an entire short story, play, poem or essay from a book or periodical publication;
 - d) an entire entry from an encyclopedia, dictionary, annotated bibliography or similar reference book;
 - e) an entire reproduction of an artistic work from a book or periodical publication; and
 - f) a single musical score from a book or periodical publication.

- 2 In the case of a Commercial Textbook produced primarily for the post secondary education market, copies may be made of up to five (5) per cent, or the following, whichever is greater:
- a) an entire chapter from a textbook provided that it does not exceed ten (10) per cent of the textbook;
 - b) an entire short story, play, poem or essay from the textbook provided that it does not exceed ten (10) per cent of the textbook; and
 - c) an entire reproduction of an artistic work or a single musical score from the textbook provided that it does not exceed ten (10) per cent of the textbook.

- 3 YOU MAY NOT COPY THE FOLLOWING:
- a) any of the works referred to in paragraphs 1b to 1f of these guidelines where the publication containing the work does not contain other works. For example, no copy may be made of a play from a publication containing the play but no other work;
 - b) unpublished works;
 - c) proprietary workbooks, work cards, assignment sheets, tests and examination papers;
 - d) instruction manuals;
 - e) newsletters with restricted circulation intended to be restricted to a fee paying clientele; or
 - f) business cases which are made available for purchase.

Copying outside fair dealing or without a licence or permission may result in personal liability for copyright infringement and increases the risk of copyright infringement claims against the university.
